Puffs from the Chief....

Tule Gem & Mineral Society's September 14, 2009 Barbeque/Meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by all in attendance. Thank you, Tony Hart for doing the meat preparation and barbeque. All of the food prepared by our Members was delicious and cannot be surpassed. Our Tule Cooks deserve a standing ovation!!

Adrienne was excited to have won the member drawing during this meeting.

The Silver Smith program at the Tule Shop is nearing a starting point, thanks to Rob Milner. Rob will notify the Club with the actual date soon. Charles Reed donated some material that will be used for the silver work. Other equipment has been purchased. Adding a new class is exciting and rewarding for our Club.

A reminder to the Nominating Committee to be ready to report at the November meeting.

Notice: Turn in a member's name for the Honorary Life Member award at the November meeting.

Rock Talks..... By Marshal Havner

Rock Talks for TGMS have been a rewarding and enjoyable experience for me. These talks are a valuable tool for reaching out into the communities and stimulating interest in rock hounding. Promoting the American Federation of Mineralogical Society and California Federation of Mineralogical Society is a much emphasized subject which includes encouraging students to think about Respect, Compliance, and Cooperation. Think about Royal Crown Cola or RCC and you'll remember e not aware that rock hounding is so well organized on national, state and local levels which promote Respect, Compliance, and Cooperation. I always carry extra copies of the AFMS, CFMS, and TGMS newsletters to share with teachers who are eager to have access to this wealth of information concerning so many areas of rock hounding interests and embody healthy values.

TGMS is fortunate to have so many members who are willing and interested in participating. Our members have a wide variety of interests concerning rocks and minerals which when they share always keep the students interested and eager to ask questions. We include a large display of rough and finished rock for a hands-on part.

REMEMBER.....
WHEN ROCKHOOUNDING DON'T FORGET TO COLLECT SMALLER
SAMPLES TO BE INCLUDED IN 2010
GEMBOREE GRAB BAGS.
And turn in any leftover show cards.
TGMS recycles these as labels for 2010 grab bags.

Just wanted to let you know (and put in the newsletter)
We have sent out a card to Tony & Heidi Lane, to congratulate them on getting hitched/married recently. May they rock hound together forever!

We also have spheres, obelisks, beads, and lots of jewelry to display which TGMS members have made. We include florescent rocks, a rock tumbler and a sphere machine as part of the display. We like to end the Rock Talk with a hands-on time and by letting each student pick out their own tumbled rock to emphasize that this is their reward for showing TGMS members and their teachers Respect, Compliance and Cooperation.

We frequently get asked how much TGMS charges to travel to local schools and do a Rock Talk. TGMS is pleased to answer "no charge to educational institutions" as this helps to maintain TGMS's community awareness and nonprofit status. We do ask the teachers to have the students write TGMS a note expressing their impression of their Rock Talk. These notes are taken to TGMS monthly meetings and shared. Some of these notes can also be seen on TGMS's web site: (tulegem.org). Please take a look at these notes and see why I love doing Rock Talks.

A field trip to Panamint Valley and the Trona Gem-O-Rama is being planned for the weekend of October 10 & 11. The group will be staying in Panamint Valley, at Ballarat; there is a flat area for campers & tents but no hookups. Ballarat is on the map and is easy to locate via road signs.

We are planning on going rock hunting on Saturday, and attending the Gem-O-Rama in Trona on Sunday prior to heading home. There will be the usual pot luck on Saturday evening.
